MUSIC SILENT NIGHT UP AND FADE SLOWLY FOR

VOICE "Estaban velando en aquellos contornos unos pastores y haciendo sentinela de noche sobre su rey,
Cuando de improviso un angel del Señor apareció junto a ellos, y cercolos con su resplandor una luz divina lo cual los llenó de sumo temor.
Dijoles entonces el angel "No temeis que temer pues vengo a daros una nueva de grandísimo gozo para todo el pueblo.
Y es que hoy os ha nacido en la ciudad de David el Salvador que es el Cristo o Mesías, el Señor nuestro;
Y sirvaos de enseña que hallareis al niño envuelto en pañales y reclinado en un pesebre."
Al punto mismo se dejó ver un ejército numeroso de la milicia celestial alabando a Dios y diciendo:
"Gloria a Dios en las alturas en los cielos, y paz en la tierra a los hombres de buena voluntad".

"THE LEGEND OF CREVE COEUR LAKE" #14

MUSIC: THEME

ANNCR: The Land We Live In!

MUSIC: INDIAN THEME...LYRIC...UNDER

NARR: Not far from St. Louis....in the hill land that looks out across the wide Missouri River....there is a lake...It was there two and a half centuries ago...when the first white men came ashore...when the intrepid LaSalle claimed all the land drained by the great rivers for his King...and since the earliest times...the lake was called Creve Coeur...because of a legend told by red men and white men alike...Tonight, we tell the story again...as it might have been told when council fires glowed red...by the chief of a vanishing tribe...

ANNCR: Your Union Electric Company, serving you around the clock and around the calendar presents...."The Legend of Creve Coeur Lake."

MUSIC: UP AND OUT UNDER

CHIEF: My people came from the land beyond the sunset...there we had known the white men from Spain...first they had been kind...their black-robes taught us to speak their tongue...and they gave us gifts. But then...the men in iron hats...with long knives...and sticks that spoke death came and drove us from our homes...and we came eastward to the valley of the Mississippi...Father of Waters....
